Person specification for the role of Gas Engineer

Essential	Desirable
Up-to-date, relevant, vocational and broad experience of working in one or more of the following areas of the gas industry.	Experience of preparing for and presenting to a target audience
Must have experience of a range of extensive practical work activities across the areas.	Experience of marking and grading assessments
Substantial experience applying knowledge and practical skills within industry.
Up-to-date current knowledge of working practices, legislation and policy within the industry areas to deliver high quality support and assessment of apprenticeship standards, in this highly technical vocational industry.
Be able to: • Demonstrate current technical competence within the Gas Engineering sector. • Demonstrate up to date, current experience in Gas Engineering, either domestic or non-domestic • Evidence current registration for Gas safe, for at least 4 appliances (preferably competent in the core and installation of cookers, boilers, gas fires and unvented cylinders. • Demonstrate strong assessment skills and hold an assessor qualification. • Show a good understanding of apprenticeships and standards.
Current occupational competence in the Gas Engineering sector
Hold a qualification to undertake assessment (A1/A2/D34/TAQA or equivalent qualification)
Relevant and up to date CPD record, documenting up to date industry experience within gas engineering
Hold one of the following qualifications: - City and Guilds Level 3 Diploma in Gas Utilisation • City and Guilds / SQA S/NVQ in Domestic Natural Gas (Level 3) or • City and Guilds 662 Certificate for Service Engineers (Gas) or • City and Guilds 598-2 or

• Certificate for Gas Installation Studies - City and Guilds 660 or • Certificate in Gas Fitting – Final. Other "Mechanical Engineering Services (MES) or Building Engineering Services qualifications at level 3 / SCQF Level 6 or equivalent may be considered. To meet the above qualifications, all assessors must hold current certificate of gas safety competence in gas work they will be assessing that is not more than five years old (either current ACS certificate of Gas Safety Competence or an aligned qualification are acceptable).
For elective units, assessors must hold a relevant qualification and/or evidence of current competency in the areas they will be assessing
Essential knowledge and skills: ➢ An understanding of apprenticeships standards and the assessment models used, with specific knowledge about the relevant industry area for the role ➢ Experience of producing clear, accurate and concise written reports, including remarks/enquiries about results ➢ Proficient IT skills ➢ Analytical, critical thinking skills ➢ Excellent interpersonal skills ➢ Excellent written and verbal communication skills with substantive experience of providing supportive, concise feedback to both learners, Assessors and delivery staff ➢ Organisational skills and the ability to prioritise effectively. ➢ Ability to work independently
Flexibility to travel across UK
Driving License	